TEXAS HUMANE HEROES and MÜV Dance and Fitness Collaborate to Promote Adoption During the Holidays!

Leander, TX – Texas Humane Heroes (TXHH) brought four animals, three dogs and one cat, to the MÜV Dance and Fitness studio in Cedar Park to collaborate in a creative photoshoot with two young, professional ballerina dancers to help promote animal adoption. This type of collaboration allows adoptable animals to be seen in a different environment and shows their personalities. Shelter animals, especially dogs, can be seen in stressful situations, but when removed from the shelter environment their true character begins to shine through.

"We are very grateful to have community businesses be involved with our organization!" stated Laura Acton, TXHH Chief Operating Officer, "MÜV Dance and Fitness is a great friend to the community and to Texas Humane Heroes. They are animal lovers and are vital to helping spotlight pets in a creative way."

"MÜV was thrilled to be a part of such a worthwhile event." stated Tracey Anderson, MÜV Dance and Fitness Director, "Our company is always willing to contribute and support Texas Humane Heroes. We love animals and want to help in any way that we can! Ballerinas, Madison & Jillian were honored to photograph with these precious pets."

Two of the animals featured in the photoshoot are still available for adoption. TXHH and MÜV continue to work together to promote pet adoption, especially during the holiday season.
